

BAKER COUNTY CATTLEWOMEN
BAKER COUNTY LIVESTOCK ASSOCIATION

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FORM

This fund has been established to provide scholarships to deserving and worthy students who are interested in agriculture related careers and are graduating seniors of a high school or completion of secondary education (includes private, home school, web, or equivalent diploma) in Baker County or North Powder. Award amounts usually range from $500 to $1,000. The awarded funds will be sent to the accredited college of the student's choice in the student's name, for the purpose of further education at that institution. The award must be used within one year or will revert to the Baker County Cattlewomen/Baker County Livestock Association Scholarship fund to be offered to an alternate or used for future applicants.

Please only include: this completed application form; official copy of your high school transcript; one letter of recommendation; SAT scores (or a statement that your college does not require SAT/ACT tests).
